Alabama Negroes Start a Row in a Kansas Mining Camp.

Six Men Reported Killed and Seven Others and Eight Women

Wounded. Some of Whom Will Die.—The Negroes were imported last year to take the place of miners who were killed in the strike.

PITTSBURGH, Kan., Aug. 1.—Tuesday afternoon, at a mining camp named Yule, seven miles east of Pittsburg, started in a saloon by Tom Doss, a colored man from this city, where a lot of Negro miners had congregated prior to going out to try some new Winchester rifles they had purchased.

Doss and others were killed and wounded, and the colored miners, some of whom were killed, were taken to the hospital.

A report has reached here that six men were killed outright, and seven men and eight women wounded, some of them mortally. The colored miners from the Alabama colored miners imported here last year to take the place of the miners among whom are ex-convicts and criminals.

Anti-Lookout for Missionaries.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—Reports from Hong Kong show that there is unrest both in northern and southern China, and that the outlook for foreign missionaries is bad. Anti-missionary disturbances are reported from Kiang-Yu, on the Yangtze-Kiang, but a far more serious affair occurred at Shek Lung, near Tung-Kun, on the Pearl river, on June 20, in this instance the Chinese government Presbyterian church was demolished by the mob, and one Christian, whether a foreigner or native has not yet been ascertained, was killed. The Catholic church was well guarded by Chinese soldiers, and it is a fact worthy of notice that here, as at Kiang-Yu, the Catholic missionaries were not molested, while the Protestant brethren suffered heavily.

Five Armed Men Rob a Bank.
GUTHRIE, Ok., Aug. 1.—At Chandler, five miles east of here, five armed men rode into town, went to the Lincoln County bank and ordered the officers to open the safe. Citizens began firing, but the robbers fled $500 from the counter and fled, first killing J. B. Mitchell, a barber, who gave the alarm. A posse of citizens pursued them, two of them were finally wounded and capturing one of the bandits. Elmer Lucas, a mere boy, who states that the others were members of the notorious gang.

Fatal Killing of a Friend.
NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 1.—Mr. W. G. Randolph, parish treasurer of East Baton Rouge, and one of the most prominent men in the parish, was shot and mortally wounded Monday afternoon, by Dr. King, local city physician, who stands high in the esteem of the community and social circles of the capital. He received a bullet through the leg. Randolph died at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning. An excited mob gathered about the men for some time.

Woman Pursued to Death.
CINCINNATI, Aug. 1.—Mrs. Lingenfelter, wife of Patrolman Jesse Lingenfelter, was fatally injured Tuesday morning. The woman was riding on a street, and about 8 o'clock she took a dose of gasoline and went to the bed-room and prepared to take a bath with the fluid. In some manner she got the bottle too near to the gas jet, and the flames set fire to the oil, causing the bottle to explode with terrific force.

Footballey Act of a Miner.
MARIETTA, O., Aug. 1.—The inquest held to determine the cause of Edward Borden's death near Hamilton, developed the fact that Borden boasted on his ability to fire a shot in the mines with a shorter fuse than any of his fellow-workmen. He was continuing to endeavor to lower his record. The last one he used extended only two inches from the hole containing the charge, and the explosion resulted in his death.

Ohio Crops in Bad Condition.
COLUMBIA, O., Aug. 1.—The state crop bulletin for the week ending Tuesday shows that the continued drought has scorched on the pastures and farmers are feeding their cattle as in winter. In many parts of the state corn, except in the river bottoms, is withering, and can not make half a crop, while potatoes promise to prove a total failure. All kinds of berries are drying up, and fruit of all sorts will be scarce.

Fugitive Contract Enjoined.
ZANESVILLE, O., Aug. 1.—The city council passed an ordinance entering into a contract with the Ohio annual association for the cure of the poor of the city and giving $1,000 annually for that purpose. Dr. J. C. Crossland secured an injunction restraining the city authorities from carrying on the contract on the ground that it is illegal.

Shot by a Boy Hunter.
HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Aug. 1.—Several boys went to the woods to picnic, and having secured a revolver, proceeded to shoot chipmunks, with the result that Fred Giesler, who is visiting at his parents from Pennsylvania, got a bullet through the leg. He shot the chipmunk, however.

DOUBLE HANGING.

Two Scott Brothers Hanged at Canton, Miss., for Choking a Witness to Death.
CANTON, Miss., Aug. 1.—A double hanging took place here at daylight Tuesday morning, the two Scott brothers, Negroes, being executed in the jail yard at 5:30 o'clock. Rev. Father Monti was with them during the night and administered the last sacrament of the Catholic church at 8 o'clock. The brothers had good-by to friends and family, and then went to the gallows with a tremor. The trap was sprung at 5:32, and their necks were broken by the drop. After hanging nearly half an hour their bodies were cut down and given to their relatives for burial.

The crime for which these two men were executed, was one of unusual atrocity. In October, 1893, they were bound over by a justice of the peace, and await the action of the grand jury upon the charge of burglary. Norman Hupson was the principal witness against them. Shortly after the hanging, Hupson went into a swamp, choked him to death; weighed his body down with iron, and threw it into the river. He was not seen for some time, while fishing, found the body.

EXCISE TAX.

Big Four Railroad Pays $1,045,527 Under the McKean Law.
COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 1.—The Big Four railway officials paid into the state treasury Tuesday $1,045,527 under the McKean law, to be used toward the support of the office of commissioner of railroads and telegraph. This company's proportion of the McKean excise tax, to be used toward the support of the office of commissioner of railroads and telegraph, is $1,045,527. The McKean law provided that this must be paid on or before August 1, and there is a penalty of $1,000 and a day for each day's failure to comply with the law. The Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago mailed a check, but had an accident, and the check might be unconstitutional, and telegraphed Auditor Ives not to use the check. He had already put it in process of collection, but the company telegraphed the Cleveland bank to stop payment. This was done.

Cholera Epidemic.
MADRID, Aug. 1.—The Spanish consul at Marseilles has telegraphed that cholera is epidemic there, that the number of deaths daily is very large and that the epidemic is spreading. The actual situation; the government has ordered stringent precautions to be taken at all Spanish ports on the frontiers of the country. The consul has sent to Marseilles with instructions to report the facts. The governor of Saragosa has forbidden the north of the province to be visited on account of the prevalence of cholera.

Feeding Wheat to Hogs.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 1.—The farmers of Indiana, for the first time in the history of the state, are feeding wheat to their hogs and selling their corn. Wheat brings forty-five cents per bushel when delivered at the country stations, and is sold readily at from forty-five to forty-seven cents. The farmers say one bushel of wheat contains as much nutriment as ten bushels of corn, and are bringing good prices and corn is higher than wheat, it is economy to feed the latter and sell the corn.

CHEN-YUEN.

Big Chinese Battleship Sent to the Bottom of the Sea.

And Two Chinese Cruisers Captured or Destroyed by Japanese.

The Chinese Fleet Carried 1,000 Men, and a Large Number of Guns.

THE CHINA FLEET, AUG. 1.—A naval battle was fought Monday between the Chinese and Japanese fleets. The Japanese sank the Chinese battleship Chen-Yuen, and two large cruisers, supposed to be the vessels built for China by the Armstrongs, were captured or destroyed by the Japanese. The Chen-Yuen was a battleship of 7,400 tons displacement, carrying fourteen and a half inches compound armor at the water line. Her battery included four twelve-inch guns, protected by an armored breastwork, and two smaller Krupp's. She was also furnished with eleven Hotchkiss cannon and tubes for Whitehead torpedoes. In addition the Chen-Yuen had two eight and one-fourth-inch and six-inch Krupp's in her main battery.

The Chen-Yuen was built for China at the Saiten works. She was a sister ship of the Ting-Yuen and was the most powerful warship in the Chinese navy with the exception of the Ting-Yuen. The Chinese fleet carried nearly a thousand men and large numbers of them are reported to have been killed or drowned. Later dispatches say that if any of the Chinese escaped, in the battle occurred. Two German officers, in command of the Chen-Yuen, are reported to have met death with the crew of that vessel.

VOORHEES SERIOUSLY ILL.

The Senator is Obligated to Remain Quietly in Bed.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The condition of Senator Daniel W. Voorhees, who has been confined to his home for a week past as the result of a severe attack of bladder trouble, is causing his friends and colleagues no little uneasiness. While no real alarm is felt, and Mr. Voorhees is not believed to be in immediate danger, the fact is nevertheless appreciated that the senator is seriously ill. He is confined to his bed during most of the time, and rest and quiet are imperative. His physician, in speaking of his patient, says that he regards his condition as not at all alarming, but the senator's close friends take a more serious view of the case. There was no material change in his condition Monday, and he was reported as having passed a comfortable day, resting more easily than on Sunday, and suffering no pain. Doctor said last evening that the senator would probably be able to be out in a few days, and continued to say that if his strength would probably permit him to resume his duties in the senate before the close of the session.

A Bill for a National Militia.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Gen. Curtis, of New York, an enthusiast on military matters, has introduced his plans for a national militia organization in a bill which has received the sanction of the house committee on military affairs. Although probably it will not secure a hearing this session, may be called up next session. Gen. Curtis proposes that the militia shall consist of every able-bodied male citizen between the ages of eighteen and forty-five, the organization to be known as the National Guard of the States and the unorganized as the reserve militia.

China Orders American Rifles.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 1.—The information is obtained from a railroad official here that a large consignment of rifles ordered by the Chinese government left Montreal Sunday night, via the Canadian Pacific and Soo roads, for Vancouver. The consignment consists of four car loads, and the Chinese agents who placed this order have gone to Vancouver to order more. The number of rifles ordered for the Chinese army so far in this country is 250,000.

Their First Meeting.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The railroad strike investigation commission met Tuesday at the bureau of labor. Messrs. Wright, Kernan and Worthington all being present. This was the first meeting of the commission and was for the purpose of arranging the preliminaries to its investigation of the strike ordered by the American Railway union and of outlining the scope of investigation.

Troops Withdrawn.
CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Mayor Hopkins was notified at noon Tuesday that he was asking him to withdraw eight companies of the First regiment I. N. G. This order removes three of the six companies now at Pullman, and leaves but one company on the Illinois Central tracks, that at east Hammond. The mayor said that he felt satisfied that three companies left at Pullman could maintain order.
